TSA PROHIBITED ITEMS

Items listed on the TSA Prohibited Item List are also prohibited on ConocoPhillips Global Aviation Aircraft. In some cases, Global Aviation is more restrictive than TSA;

- Firearms, firearm parts, and ammunition (including magazines, clips, bolts and firing pins) are not allowed in carry-on or checked baggage, unless specifically authorized by ConocoPhillips in writing and declared to the ConocoPhillips Global Aviation Ticket Agent.
- Flare guns are not authorized in checked bags.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

The Hazardous Materials Regulations (HMR) are federal transportation safety rules found in 49 CFR, parts 171-180. The FAA enforces the HMR in aviation. Passengers violating the HMR can be fined from $250 to $50,000. Those who intentionally violate the regulations are subject to a criminal penalty of up to $500,000 and/or five years imprisonment. So, it is important to know what items are hazardous materials and whether or not they are allowed in the aircraft cabin or in checked baggage.

ConocoPhillips Global Aviation follows and enforces the HMR requirements found on the FAA PackSafe site.

Global Aviation also maintains a special emphasis on E-Cigarettes and Lithium Batteries. E-cigarettes are not allowed in checked bags. Lithium batteries can only be transported under special provisions. Go to the FAA PackSafe site or the Global Aviation FAQ section, "Batteries & E-Cigarettes" for more information.

Regarding the shipment of other hazardous materials not listed on the FAA PackSafe site, Global Aviation does not carry any hazardous materials listed under 49 CFR, parts 171-180.
